

THEATER PARTY QUESTIONNAIRE

- APPLAUSE - Anne Baxter is the star of this musical version of All About Eve, but Penny Fuller is the one to watch. A glamorous and exciting musical of backstage life and what some people will do to get ahead. Palace Theatre, 1564 Broadway.
- LENNY - Outrageous, extravagant, tragic, and very funky. A zinger of a performance by Cliff Gorman of The Boys in the Band. Based on the words and life of Lenny Bruce. Brooks Atkinson Theatre, W. 47th St. (Sunday Mat. at 3:00)
- TWO GENTLEMEN OF VERONA - Bursting with comic energy. A sassy delight. Based on Shakespears play but don't let that turn you off. A delightful and enjoyable musical. Great singing and dancing by Jonelle Allen, Raul Julia, Clifford Davis and Diana Davilla. A truly beautiful musical. St. James Theatre, 246 W. 44th St.
- BUTTERFLIES ARE FREE - Gloria Swanson stars as a mother trying to hold onto her son, who happens to be blind and independent. A delightful comedy. A load of laughs and a few tears. Miss Swanson has never looked lovelier. Booth Theatre, 45th St. west of Broadway.
- SUGAR - A new musical based on "Some Like It Hot". OPENS April 6th. Stars Robert Morse and Elaine Joyce. Majestic Theatre, 245 W. 44th St.
- HAIR - One of Broadway's real musical treats. A fast moving rock musical. Biltmore Theatre, W. 47th St. (Sunday Mat. at 3:00)
- THE PRISONER OF SECOND AVENUE - Stars Peter Falk and Lee Grant. The smash hit comedy by Neil Simon as directed by Mike Nichols is a comment on our current hyper-nervous state. Eugene O'Neill Theatre, W. 49th St.
- SLEUTH - A devilishly clever thriller. Tony Award as best play 70-71. Music Box Theatre, 237 W. 45th St.
